

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

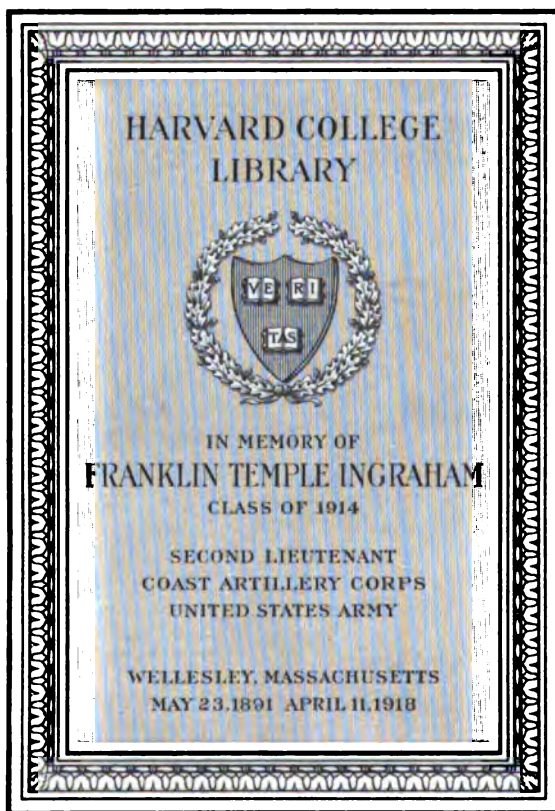

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Homines pereunt, Domina manent.

Preface.

THOUGH there is no mention of Colne (anciently spelt Calna) in Domesday Book, we learn that in the reign of Henry I., Hugh de Laval, who acquired the forfeited fief of Robert de Lascy, granted in 1122 to the Priory of Pontefract inter alia—et in Boolanda ecclesiam de Sletburna cum hiis que ad se pertinent, et in Cestrieschira ecclesiam de Walleya et ad eam pertinentia, et capellam castelli mei de Clitherow cum decimis omnium rerum dominii mei ejusdem castelli et ibidem ecclesiam sanctē Mariē Magdalenē et ecclesiam de Calna et ecclesiam de Brunlaia.—[And in Bowland the church of Slaidburn with those things that belong to it, and in Cheshire the church of Whalley with all that belong to it, and the chapel of my castle of Clitheroe with the tithes of all things of my demesne of that castle, and the church of S. Mary Magdalene there, and the church of Colne, and the church of Burnley.]

This grant was confirmed in 1155 by Royal Charter of Henry II.

Again we find in the Ecclesiastical Charter LVII. of Pontefract Priory about 1160—Ex dono Hugonis de Laval decimam redditus ville de Pontefracto et ecclesiam de Dardingtona et ecclesiam de Kippeis cum omnibus ad eas pertinentibus, et in Booland, ecclesiam de Sleitburna cum omnibus ad eam pertinentibus, et in Cestresire, ecclesiam de Walleya et quicquid ad eam pertinet, et capellam castelli de Clitherow cum decimis omnium rerum dominii sui, et ibidem ecclesiam beati Marię Magdalenę et ecclesiam de Calna et ecclesiam de Brunley, et quecumque ad illas pertinent.

[Of the gift of Hugh de Laval, the tithe of the rent of the town of Pontefract, and the church of Darrington, and the church of Kippax with all things belonging to them; and in Booland the church of Slaidburn with all belonging to it, and in Cheshire the church of Whalley and whatever belong to it, and the chapel of the castle of Clitheroe with the tithe of all things of his demesne, and the church of the blessed Mary Magdalene there, and the church of Colne and the church of Burnley, and whatever belong to them.]

Upon the curious map of Lancashire delineated by John Speed in 1610, Colne appears as one of the fifteen principal towns of Lancashire, the others being Blackburn, Bolton, Bury, Garstang, Kirkham, Lancaster, Liverpool, Manchester, Ormskirk, Preston, Rochdale, Ulverston, Warrington, and Wigan. Colne was one of the seven original parochial chapelries dependent upon Whalley and comprised the townships of Colne, Barrowford, Foulridge, Trawden, and Great and Little Marsden.

Christenings and Burials solemnised at the Chapel of Ease at Little Marsden were recorded in the Colne Registers down to the year 1812. There does not appear to have been any Marriages at that Chapel in the early years of the Register.

The Colne Registers, which are in Latin throughout, commence in the forty-second year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth during the incumbency of Richard Brierley who was buried 2nd February, 1635-6, as appears in the Register. The entries from 1599 to the end of 1635-6 are in his own handwriting, a fine specimen of minute caligraphy as is shown on the frontispiece.

His successor Thomas Warriner continued, in a scholarly and legible hand, the entries until 1645, when, according to Dr. Walker, the author of "Sufferings of the Clergy," he was, in the time of divine service, dragged out of the desk by two Parliamentary soldiers who pursued him down the aisle and owned that they had intended to fire upon him, had not some of the congregation restrained them. He fled into Yorkshire where he is supposed to have died as he never returned to his charge at Colne.

Thomas Whalley, whose burial is also recorded 23rd February, 1646-7, filled the gap until the installation of John Horrocks, a Puritan. His entries in the Register form a strong contrast to those of his predecessors, for his writing was that of an illiterate person and his Latin orthography, declensions, and conjugations are execrably bad. He died minister of Colne in 1667 after the Restoration, having conformed to the new régime when many better Puritan ministers resigned their preferments.

The earliest Register, of which this volume is comprised, contains 60 parchment leaves measuring $13\frac{1}{4}$ inches by 6 inches, and the first entry is that of a Christening on 27th March, 1599, and the last entry a Christening on 22nd September, 1653. There are no records of Marriages from the 6th February, 1644-5, to the 16th June, 1654; this circumstance is probably owing to the unsettled state of affairs which, according to a note made in the Register, prevailed during the "Cromwellian Rebellion."

The Register, which is only in a moderate state of preservation, some of the pages having suffered from damp to the almost obliteration of many entries, is bound with strong calf and lettered thus:—

AB ANNO 1599 AD 1653.

In this Register the year indiscriminately begins on Lady Day, 25th March, or on the following day, the 26th, according to the caprice of the registrar.

The entries in all respects have been exactly reproduced, and every proof sheet has been carefully collated with the original Register by Mr. Samuel Dixon of Edgend, to whom I desire here to acknowledge my obligations.

In the index of names, for which the Society is indebted to the good offices of Dr. A. E. Hodder of Wigan, the English equivalents of Latin Christian names have been given.

Lastly, cordial acknowledgments are due to Mr. Thomas Price for his invaluable assistance during the progress of these Transcripts.

Christian Names and Surnames.

Christenings	pp. 1—126 inclusive.
Weddings	„ 127—167 „
Burials	„ 168—233 „

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form—the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father. In Indexing the Marriages the woman has been Indexed under maiden name and husband's name.

“N.X.N.” signifies “No Christian Name.”

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number asterisked.
